

Closed-Circuit Television (CCTV) – Midland Office - Personal Information Collection Notice

The Western Australian Land Information Authority, trading as Landgate, collects personal information where required by law or to provide services to you. In addition to our Privacy Policy, this notice provides further details about the collection of your personal information via the collection method identified above.

Collecting personal information

Your personal information may be collected by Landgate. Where necessary, we may obtain your personal information (video recording and images only; no audio) from the property manager, Knight Frank, who manages and operates the CCTV system at the Midland office.

Authority to collect personal information

Landgate will only collect personal information from this system where authorised by law or in response to a request made under the Freedom of Information Act 1992.

Choosing not to provide personal information

CCTV surveillance operates within the Midland office. By entering the premises, you acknowledge being recorded. Footage is stored securely and only accessed by authorised staff or where disclosure is required for purposes outlined in this collection notice.

Disclosing personal information

If Landgate collects your personal information, it may be disclosed to the WA Police Force or other authorities where required by law or in response to a request made under the Freedom of Information Act 1992.

Accessing and correcting personal information

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you may access and correct your personal information held by Landgate.

Privacy complaints and questions

Our Privacy Policy outlines how you can lodge a complaint regarding any suspected mishandling of your personal information and how Landgate manages and responds to such complaints.
