

Strata Titles Act Review Consultation Representative Nomination - Personal Information Collection Notice

The Western Australian Land Information Authority, trading as Landgate, collects personal information where required by law or to provide services to you. In addition to our Privacy Policy, this notice provides further details about the collection of your personal information via the collection method identified above.

Collecting personal information

Your personal information is being collected by Landgate.

Landgate collects personal information provided via email or phone in response to a request for the nomination of a representative to coordinate organisation participation in the Review of the Strata Titles Act 1985 (the Review).

Personal information collected is generally provided voluntarily as part of correspondence and assists Landgate in identifying and contacting the appropriate contact to facilitate interviews between a third-party consultation agency and the nominee's organisation.

Authority to collect personal information

Your personal information is not required to be collected under any specific law. Landgate collects this information for the purposes of conducting the Review, as set out above.

Choosing not to provide personal information

Should you not wish for your personal information to be recorded, Landgate will be unable to coordinate with the third-party consultation organisation. As a result, your organisation may not be able to engage in the interview process for the purposes of the Review.

Disclosing personal information

Your personal information may be provided to a third-party consultation agency to facilitate and commence the stakeholder interview process for organisations participating in the Review.

Accessing and correcting personal information

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you may access and correct your personal information that is held by Landgate.

Privacy complaints and questions

Our Privacy Policy outlines how you can lodge a complaint regarding any suspected mishandling of your personal information and how Landgate manages and responds to such complaints.
