Document numbers for 'lot sync' plans

Under the trial of the revised plan examination priority, the application for new titles document number must be submitted when lodging a 'lot sync' plan via NLR-Plan.

A high plan examination priority can only be issued once a valid application document number has been submitted through NLR-Plan.

There is no requirement to provide document numbers for other supporting or follow-up documents, such as those registering a restrictive covenant or notification.

If the application document has been lodged prior to plan submission

If the application document has been lodged prior to lodging the plan, you can add the document number when you lodge your plan. Click the 'Lot sync' tick box.
